

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
JACKSON DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 3:07cr20-DCB-JCS

RUSSELL KEYES

AGREED ORDER

THIS CAUSE came on for consideration of the defendant's ore tenus motion, with the agreement of the Government, for the entry of an Order directing that the defendant, Russell Keyes, being charged with violation of Section 287, Title 18, United States Code, be provided with a mental health examination in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4241, 4242 and 4247, Title 18, United States Code, in that there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant may presently be suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to the extent that he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that pursuant to the provision of Section 4241 and 4247, Title 18, United States Code, a mental health examination is to be conducted. Because the defendant is out on bond, defense counsel is hereby ordered to make arrangements with a local doctor to perform the evaluation not the Bureau of Prisons. Following such a mental health examination, a report is to be prepared, filed with the Court, with copies provided to counsel for the defendant and the attorney for the Government, such report to include the defendant's history and present symptoms; a description of the mental health examination tests that were administered and their results; the examiner's findings; the examiner's opinions as to diagnosis, prognosis, and whether the defendant is suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to the extent he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to properly assist in his defense; whether the defendant was insane at the time of the offense charged; and in the event the defendant is convicted of this charge, any recommendation the examiner may have as to how the mental condition of the defendant should affect a sentence to be imposed, if any.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the period of delay caused by this continuance be excluded from the computation of time in this case pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act (18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq.).

SO ORDERED this the 29th day of June, 2007.
